

LSE & InStat Strategic Partnership

For Immediate Release

Toronto, ON (February 5th, 2021) – Live Sports & Entertainment (“LSE”) is proud to announce a strategic partnership with InStat. InStat is a video analysis and statistical data company which helps hockey leagues and teams, worldwide, enhance scouting, player development and communication. LSE is a premier boutique sports agency focused on representing, managing and advising elite hockey players and their families around the world.

Through this strategic partnership, Live Sports & Entertainment and InStat will provide LSE clients with thorough game reports, video analysis, and statistical breakdowns that will assist in player development and communication. LSE clients will receive player reports via email that will include an individual report and links to the player’s important in-game actions.

InStat is used by many amateur, collegiate and professional leagues around the world and has become an important tool for amateur and professional scouting services.

“We see how relevant InStat and analytics have become in today’s game, thus, we believe InStat will play an important role in allowing our players to grow in all facets of their game.” says Harkie Singh, LSE President and NHLPA Certified Agent. “Being a boutique agency, we want to assist our players in all areas, both on and off the ice, and believe InStat continues to grow the resources available for our clients.” Singh added.

About Live Sports & Entertainment

Live Sports & Entertainment is a premier boutique sports agency dedicated to representing, managing and advising elite hockey players and their families around the world.

To learn more about Live Sports and Entertainment, please visit: www.lseagency.com

About InStat

Founded in 2007, InStat is a video analysis and statistical data company which helps hockey leagues and teams, worldwide, enhance scouting, player development and communication.

To learn more about InStat, please visit: <https://instatsport.com/hockey>